Principal's Address

Today, most people are concerned about unrest among young people and their abuse of drugs. This is not new, there has always been unrest among this group and as in the past a segment of this group has attempted to find a "crutch" to pull them through this age of uncertainty. Sure, today's young people have problems facing them as they go out into the world to make, not find, their place in society. This is not only a problem for today's youth, it has always been in the past, and will continue to be in the future. It is my contention that today's parents are overly concerned with providing economic and social security for their children, "I must give them the things I did not have, attitude," when their main concern should be family security and maturity. Young people do not want the way "paved" for them, what they really want is a challenge to improve on the world they inherit. They must have a "cause" to strive for if they are to make a contribution comparable or greater than past generations.

WHO SAYS SCHOOL DAYS ARE ALL WORK?
THERE'S ALWAYS TIME FOR:

Looking

back,

A clean
joke,

Athletic Competition

School Trips

And laughing at some of our teachers "The Three Stuges."

Night of Southern Innosense

Some people lead - others only follow.

The best time of the day - 3:00 P.M.
